Presenting an oil and watercolor workshop with Artist and author Betty Carr

Still life paintings by Betty Carr, who works in oil, at left, as well as in watercolor, at right

As a professional artist, Betty Carr has traveled extensively, gathering inspirational subject matter through her plein-air painting experiences. Carr is the author of the acclaimed instructional book, Seeing the Light: An Artist's Guide, and her work has been featured in numerous books.

September 10 - 13, 2011 • 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM Randolph County Community Arts Center

In her workshop, Carr will share her time-tested secrets for capturing the awe-inspiring qualities of light on canvas. Students will learn how to use light to create depth, form, mood and atmosphere.
